

Toy Story 3

The toys are mistakenly delivered to a day care centre instead of the attic, right before Andy leaves for college. It's up to Woody to convince the other toys that they weren't abandoned and to return home.

The themes of the movie are friendship and supporting each other.

- 0:00 The movie begins with the toys having an adventure
- 5:12 Shows an old recording of Andy playing with the toys.
- 6:12 The toys are using Andy's phone to bring him to the toy box. He retrieves his phones and shuts the lid on them. Woody gathers the toys together to decide how to be there for Andy. Andy is on his way to College and the toys see they are going to be sent to the attic. They are worried they are being abandoned. They remember those who have been lost along the way. Woody is being positive and trying to reassure the others that they will all be ok. Buzz agrees that at least they will all be together.
- 11:32 Andy's mum tries to sort out his room, deciding what gets packed away or thrown out. Andy has a go at sorting them out, he puts most into a garbage bag and throws Woody into a box for College. The toys are all in a garbage bag and Woody watches as Andy's mum takes the bag outside.
- 15:52 The bags are placed in a garbage truck but they manage to escape and meet in the garage. They jump into the box headed to the day care centre.
- 19:00 Toys arrive at the centre and are excited at first, all except Woody who is very cautious
- 20:35 The toys are welcomed into the group with great examples of positive body language. They are introduced to the bear Lots a Huggin. He explains that they will always be played with, as the children leave, new ones come along. Woody is still not keen. They are taken to the Caterpillar Room and Hug a Lot sets them up to be played with by the Day Care children. Woody tells the toys they should go home, they have a kid Andy, that's where they should be. Woody tries to get them to leave together. He tells them they are being selfish by not wanting to go back to Andy's house. Bullseye tries to follow Andy but Andy doesn't want him to be alone in the attic.
- 28:23 Andy manages to escape out the window onto the roof but gets stuck in a tree and is discovered by Bonny and placed in her bag.
- 30:45 The toys are excited by the thought of being played with again after so long. Then they are attacked by a class full of small children. Buzz is able to see into the next room where they are all calm. They were set up by Lots a Huggin.
