

The Gallery of Mercy– Week Five

'A Woman Protects Her Son': By Samuel Aranda
Medium: Photograph
Winner World Press Photo Award 2011

The photo depicts a mother in the moment that she found her son alive in the mosque in Yemen in the midst of violence that had erupted in response to anti government protests. The photographer, Samuel Aranda, notes that amidst the chaos that surrounded her Fatima was completely calm holding her son Zayed as they waited for medical attention.

What feelings does this image evoke in you?

How does it speak to you of Mercy?

